The Bossier Chamber of Commerce has announced its 2013 Board of Directors.

“As the Bossier Chamber continues to grow and expand, we are also expanding the knowledge and expertise around our board room table,” says Lisa Johnson, president of the Bossier Chamber. “I believe this team of board members will lead us through a successful 2013 and lay the groundwork for the years to come.”

- Chairman of the Board, Jason Smith, Citizens National Bank
- Chair-Elect, Chancellor Jim Henderson, Bossier Parish Community College
- Finance Chair, Emile Cordaro, AEP SWEPCO
- Past Chair, Kara Lowrie, Acadiana Mortgage
- Chair of Investor Relations, Rod Centers, Boomtown Casino and Hotel
- Chair of Special Events, Lisa Janes, TownSquare Media
- Chair of Marketing, Dana Smelser, CHRISTUS Schumpert
- Chair of Government Relations and Public Policy, David Specht, Bossier-Press Tribune
- Chair of Military Relations, Andy Thomson, Northrop Grumman
- West Anderson, Col (ret), Boeing
- Mike Boggs, Boggs & Poole Contracting Group, Inc.
- Cliff Broussard, Willis-Knighton Health System
- Sandy M. Cimino, Ouachita Independent Bank
- Rick Holland, Gibsland Bank & Trust
- Sarie Joubert, Chesapeake Energy
- Emily Leahy, Heard, McElroy & Vestal
- Meredith McLellan, BeautiControl/University of Phoenix
- Mike McSwain, Mike McSwain Architect, LLC
- Terry Moore, Merrill Lynch
- Bruce Roberts, Roberts and Murphy, Inc.
- Craig Spohn, Cyber Innovation Center
- Doug Stinson, Bradley Murchison Kelly & Shea, LLC
- Rod Taylor, Barksdale Federal Credit Union
- Donna Womack, Bossier Parish Community College

The Board is selected through a nominating committee of seven current board members, and voted on by chamber members. Nominees must be an active Bossier Chamber member in good standing. Each board member serves a three-year term, with no more than three consecutive terms.

The 2013 Board of Directors will be formally recognized at the Bossier Chamber’s Annual Meeting and Gala on Jan. 22 at the CenturyLink Center at 7 p.m.