One morning on Jake's birthday Jake woke up and heard people singing! "Happy birthday"! When they were done singing happy birthday he reminded his grandparents to go to the Boardwalk.

First, they went shopping. Jake wanted to buy a robot. He only had $60. The robot cost $8. So he bought the robot. Now he has $52. He wanted to purchase other stuff but he didn't want to waste his money.

Second, he wanted to go to the restaurant. It cost $6 so he bought it. Now he had $46. When he tasted it, it was so great he even wanted more. But he didn't want to waste his money. It was midnight and he wanted to go to the movie theater. It cost $10. He purchased it now he has $36. He sat in the front seat. He watched the new Disney movie until it was done. After that he went home. Then his grandparents gave him a good night kiss.

During the movie Jake threw-up and it was gross. On the same day we went to the arcade it was so much fun, and we were playing a game and Jake won. And Jake found the teddy bear game, it was exactly one dollar. So we went and played it I won a Kitin, he won a brown teddy bear. So we saw our favorite games. So I went to it and Jake went to get drinks. Then, we started playing it, suddenly Jake was thirsty so he picked-up the drink and it slipped out of his hand! It fell on the game and the game stopped working. Jake said "I am in trouble. On the same day we went shopping Jake couldn't find a Xbox 360 so we went to every store and still didn't find it.
